

April 10, 2011

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I want to thank Bett Correa and her team for the wonderful Talent Show and Pie Contest we enjoyed last night! Thanks also to all of you who so wonderfully supported the event and contributed to this summer's Missions Trip to Cherokee, North Carolina.

By now you know that the Session has extended an invitation to James Nichols to become our Pastoral Intern. You can read more about James and his family in the Announcements section of this bulletin and also in April's Trumpet. James will begin his duties at our church on June 27, 2011. Please pray about the transition. Also, if you are aware of suitable and affordable housing (near the church) for the Nichols family, please let me know as soon as possible.

I would like to encourage you to attend our Wednesday Night Prayer Meeting. Because the Family Dinner now starts at 5:45 p.m., it is possible to start the Prayer Meeting earlier. Therefore, until May 18 (the last Family Night of the school year) the Prayer Meeting will start at 6:30 p.m. and end at 7:15 p.m. This should enable adult choir members to join us for prayer and still get to the choir rehearsal on time. So, please join us for prayer on Wednesday evenings!

God Cleanses Us from Our Sin

The Confession of Sin

People: Most merciful God whose Son, Jesus Christ, was tempted in every way, yet
was without sin,
we confess before you our own sinfulness;
we have hungered after that which does not satisfy;
we have compromised with evil;
we have doubted your power to protect us.
Forgive our lack of faith; have mercy on our weakness.
Restore in us such trust and love that we may walk in your ways and delight in doing your will. Amen.

The Assurance of Forgiveness

Based on Ephesians 2:8

Leader: By grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God.

The Song of Response

How Great Is Your Love

Chorus:
How high and how wide, how deep and how long,
How sweet and how strong is Your love;
How lavish Your grace, how faithful Your ways,
How great is Your love, oh Lord!

No eye has seen, and no ear has heard,
And no mind has ever conceived
The glorious things that You have prepared
For everyone who has believed;
You brought us near and You called us Your own,
And made us joint heirs with Your Son.

Chorus:

Objects of mercy, who should have known wrath.
We're filled with unspeakable joy!
Riches of wisdom, unsearchable wealth,
And the wonder of knowing Your voice.
You are our treasure and our great reward,
Our hope and our glorious King!

Chorus:

How lavish Your grace, how faithful Your ways,
How great is Your love, oh Lord!

God Consecrates Us by His Word

The Affirmation of Faith

Westminster Shorter Catechism #31-32

Leader: What is effectual calling?

People: Effectual calling is the work of God's Spirit, who convinces us that we are sinful and miserable, who enlightens our minds in the knowledge of Christ, and who renews our wills. This is how he persuades and makes us able to receive Jesus Christ, who is freely offered to us in the gospel.

Leader: What benefits do those who are effectually called share in this life?

People: In this life those who are effectually called share justification, adoption, sanctification, and the other benefits that either go with or come from them.

The OT Scripture Reading

Ezekiel 37:1-14

RE Fred Gordon

¹The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of the valley; it was full of bones.²And he led me around among them, and behold, there were very many on the surface of the valley, and behold, they were very dry.³And he said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" And I answered, "O Lord GOD, you know."⁴Then he said to me, "Prophesy over these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD."⁵Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live.⁶And I will lay sinews upon you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live, and you shall know that I am the LORD."

⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a sound, and behold, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone.⁸And I looked, and behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them. But there was no breath in them.⁹Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live."¹⁰So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

¹¹Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are indeed cut off.'¹²Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will open your graves and raise you from your graves, O my people. And I will bring you into the land of Israel.¹³And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people.¹⁴And I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will do it, declares the LORD."

The Psalm

Psalm 101

TUNE: AURELLA (The Church's One Foundation)

Of mercy and of justice, O Lord, I'll sing to Thee.
In uprightness and wisdom shall my behavior be.
O when in loving kindness wilt Thou to me come near?
I'll walk within my dwelling with heart and life sincere.

I will permit no base thing before my eyes to be.
I hate unfaithful doing; it shall not cleave to me.
The man whose heart is froward shall from my presence go;
And nothing that is evil will I consent to know.

I'll cut him off that slanders his neighbor secretly;
I'll not endure the proud heart nor eyes that haughty be.
My eyes are with the faithful that he may dwell with me;
The man whose walk is upright my minister shall be.

The NT Scripture Reading

John 11:1-45

RE Fred Gordon

¹Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.²It was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ill.³So the sisters sent to him, saying, "Lord, he whom you love is ill."⁴But when Jesus heard it he said, "This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

⁵Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.⁶So, when he heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.⁷Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."⁸The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking to stone you, and are you going there again?"⁹Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.¹⁰But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."¹¹After saying these things, he said to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go to awaken him."¹²The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."¹³Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he meant taking rest in sleep.¹⁴Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus has died,¹⁵and for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."¹⁶ So Thomas, called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

¹⁷ Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.¹⁸ Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off,¹⁹ and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother.²⁰ So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary remained seated in the house.²¹ Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.²² But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you."²³ Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."²⁴ Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live,²⁶ and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?"²⁷ She said to him, "Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world."

²⁸ When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying in private, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you."²⁹ And when she heard it, she rose quickly and went to him.³⁰ Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him.³¹ When the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary rise quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.³² Now when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled.³⁴ And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."³⁵ Jesus wept.³⁶ So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"³⁷ But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man also have kept this man from dying?"

³⁸ Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it.³⁹ Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days."⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?"⁴¹ So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me.⁴² I knew that you always hear me, but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent me."⁴³ When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out."⁴⁴ The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

⁴⁵ Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him.

¹⁴I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children.¹⁵For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel.¹⁶I urge you, then, be imitators of me.¹⁷That is why I sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church.¹⁸Some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you.¹⁹But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power.²⁰For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power.²¹What do you wish? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love in a spirit of gentleness?

Welcome to Our Guests

If you're worshipping with us for the first time, please use the forms in the Friendship Register. They have been placed in each row to enable you to introduce yourself and request additional information about any areas of interest. We consider this our first line of communication and ask that you use it to note your presence each time you worship with us. With the exception of a letter of welcome, we assure you that your privacy will be protected.

Welcome Lunch

Pastor Freddy Fritz, his wife Eileen, the TBPC officers and their wives would like to invite you to a Welcome Lunch. These take place every one to two months immediately following the Worship Service. They are hosted at the homes of various members of our leadership and provide an excellent opportunity for you to get better acquainted, ask questions, and discuss any areas of interest with the pastor and the church leaders. Our next lunch is June 5th. Please RSVP at least one week in advance on your Friendship Register form, at the Welcome Lunch sign up table, or by contacting Eileen Fritz (EileenFritz@verizon.net, 813-7331-0457) at least 4 days in advance.

Pastoral Intern Selected

The Session is pleased to announce that it unanimously voted this past Sunday to invite James Nichols to become the Pastoral Intern at the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church. James is married to Melissa, and they have three boys named Isaac (5), Eli (3), and Abram (6 months). James is in his final semester at Covenant Theological Seminary in St. Louis, MO. He hopes to graduate on May 20 with a Master of Divinity degree. James will move to Tampa in June and begin his internship at TBPC on June 27, 2011. Please pray for the Nichols family as they conclude their time in St. Louis and transition to Tampa. Pray specifically for James to finish his studies strong, for all the details that go into packing and moving a home with three young boys, and that they will find affordable housing in Tampa. (Please talk to Pastor Fritz if you know of an affordable house or apartment for the Nichols family.) We praise God for leading us to call James to this position.

WIC 15 Meeting

There will be a WIC 15 meeting after church today. Take a few minutes to greet friends, then meet in classroom #23 at 12:00 p.m. to get the latest information on women's events. Think about any concerns or new ideas you may want to share.

The Trumpet

The April issue of the Trumpet has been sent out by e-mail and posted to the church web site. Print copies are available today in the church narthex. If you have any trouble accessing the Trumpet online or as an e-mail attachment, please contact Doug Knox (813-258-8867).

Safety and Housekeeping Reminder

All of us have a tendency to relax our vigilance from time to time. There have been a few instances of the doors being left unlocked and the church being left in an untidy condition, so we are asking that anyone who finds themselves the last to leave the church to check the doors and the general condition of the church. Also, there have been what appears to be playful, yet damaging behavior by unsupervised children, including sand being put in a water fountain. Please be vigilant and be aware of where your children are and if there are children anywhere in need of supervision.

Wednesday Night Prayer Meeting

With the Wednesday Night Family Dinner starting at 5:45 p.m. most people have finished their dinners by 6:30 p.m. So, the Wednesday Night Prayer Meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. and end at 7:15 p.m. Adult choir members will now be able to join in the Prayer Meeting and get to the start of the choir rehearsal on time! Please do join us for prayer; it is perhaps the most important meeting in our church's life!

Meals for the Hensleys

A co-worker of Debi's has set up a website site (www.takethemameal.com) to facilitate meal coordination for the Hensleys while Debi recovers from her surgery. Anyone who wishes may sign up there. To access the site, you need to put in their last name, "Hensley", and the password, "1288." Once there, you can sign up to provide a meal. It includes directions to their house. We suggest that you use containers you do not wish to be returned and label them "toss". If you do want them back, please label them with your name. The surgery date is May 10th. Please verify the surgery date on the website before delivering meals.

New Bulletin Insert Policy And Reminder

Inserts are often used in combination with Worship Service Bulletin Announcements and sometimes stand alone as the announcement. In either case, they must meet all of the same criteria as the Worship Service Bulletin Announcement. When there is more than one insert in any given week, one may be printed on one side, and another, possibly unrelated, on the other side.

The standard protocol is:

- First week: insertion in each bulletin produced for the Worship Service.
- Second, and subsequent weeks: placement in the Friendship Register.
- Any exceptions to this protocol must be approved by the Senior Pastor.

Reminder: All bulletin announcements need to be submitted by the Wednesday prior to the Sunday they need to be put in the bulletin.

The Gold Rush is On

Planning has begun for Vacation Bible School, July 11th-15th. Children 4 years old to 5th grade will have an exciting adventure: Gold Rush-Discovering the Rock of Ages. We need over 50 volunteers to staff and prepare for this program: teachers, group leaders, snack helpers, craft helpers, a drama director, actors, and more. If you would like to volunteer, please use the insert clipped into the Friendship Register and indicate your area of interest, or contact Cheryl Barber (813-494-5380).

Haiti Support Project

Moved by comments from Esaie Etienne during our recent Missions Conference, Michele Atkinson, a Missions Committee member and her husband, Chris, have volunteered to collect badly needed school uniforms for the "Académie Chrétienne de Do-ciné," the Christian School in Docine, Haiti, and then get these items to Esaie for transport to Haiti. You can help by bringing BLACK boys pants (sizes 6-14); BLACK girls skirts (sizes 6-14); BURGUNDY or HUNTERS GREEN polo/golf type shirts for boys or girls (sizes (6-14); and children's shoes of any size, to the collection box in the narthex where you can see examples of these items. The last day for donations will be May 1st.

Spring Quarter CE&F Classes

Currently through June 26th: From 9:00 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. on Sunday morning, we are offering these new class choices:

- Worldviews and Their Impacts examines the bedrock questions that govern how people view the world; a view which undergirds personal beliefs and popular culture. This class can help you understand worldview foundations and provide you with information to help change hearts and minds on the moral issues of the day. Teacher: Joe Burns

- Survey of the New Testament provides a “big picture” perspective on Jack B. Scott’s book of this title. You’ll examine how the New Testament fits with the Old; the history and culture surrounding its writing; the meaning of these texts to their first readers; and how to apply their scriptural truth to our 21st century lives. Teacher: Doug Hayman
- MorningWalk is designed to cultivate friendship and prayer partnerships for women of all ages. Our focus continues with the book, When Helping Hurts, by Steve Corbett & Brian Fokker, and applying its Biblical principles to relieving poverty, locally and globally, as well as examining the relevance of these principles to our personal relationships. Teacher: Eileen Fritz

Care Ministry Working Lunch Schedule

The Easter Centers include six stations where children listen to costumed storytellers, complete crafts, and enjoy hands-on experiences. The NTCA teachers act as escorts to their class groups. The set-up is Monday, April 18th from 9:00 a.m.—noon; the centers are on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 19th & 20th from 8:45 a.m.—12:15 p.m.; and clean-up is from 12:15 p.m.—3:00 p.m. on Wednesday. That every member will be involved in a ministry at the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church.

Missions

Dick Fisher: Pray for the many Pasco-Hernando Hospice patients, family and staff who Dick is privileged to minister to weekly in Dade City. Dick has plans to teach his "You Were Made to Last Forever" material to some of the churches in the Central Florida Presbytery, of which he is a member. Pray for daughter Jessica, who has been diagnosed with thyroid cancer: that her current treatment will cure it without the need for surgery.

Nathaniel Adawonu: Nathaniel is in West Africa for most of April, where he is leading a medical team of 9 doctors & 4 staff to Togo for 10 days, followed by a vision trip to Mali and visits to Burkina-Faso and Ghana. Nathaniel is seeking expansion of Reformed Presbyterian church planting partnerships in WA, which has a large Muslim population. In May he will visit 20 U.S. churches in the SE to discuss possible ministry partnerships in prayer and financial support. Please pray that both trips would yield great ministry blessings to NHMI as it strives to bring the gospel to the lost in West Africa. Pray also for Cherita and the kids while Nathaniel is traveling.

Esaie & Natacha Etienne: Esaie asks for prayers for the leaders of the churches in Gonaives and Docine. Pray also for his family as they adjust to his frequent absences on trips to Haiti. Pray for the country as deaths from the cholera epidemic continue. And pray for the political actors to find a compromise in the electoral crisis in Haiti. Esaie says, "The best thing about being a missionary/pastor is that you have assumed a platform amongst people who know you to share or to live out the gospel, because this is the expectation. Though I have to say it can be difficult at times to meet that expectation, it is to me a grace to be in such a position."
