THE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING & CONSECRATION

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

The Westminster Assembly's Directory (1644)

Today's Worship Leader: Freddy Fritz

To celebrate the 500th Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, we shall use several historic Orders of Worship this fall. Today's service is The Westminster Assembly's Directory (1644).

The same assembly of Puritan divines that produced the Westminster Confession of Faith with its Larger and Shorter Catechisms also produced The Westminster Directory for the Publique Worship of God (1644). This lesser known work was designed to replace the Church of England's Book of Common Prayer (1559). "Long and sad experience," they said, had shown that the old prayer book was a constant source of trouble. Its liturgical rigidity (permitting no prayers but those given) and questionable particulars (vestiges of the Roman mass) unnecessarily burdened the consciences of many "sundry good Christians." Thus a directory; not a liturgy, was written, outlining the main headings of worship and general directions to ministers, but allowing within that framework the exercise of individual gifts-such as extemporaneous prayer. Sometimes referred to as the only liturgy to consist entirely of rubrics, the Directory was adopted by Parliament for the kingdoms of England, Scotland, and Ireland, and by the General Assembly of the church of Scotland (both 1645). Bard Thompson calls it "a monumental effort to comprehend the virtues of form and freedom." The heart of this worship service is taken from the Directory. The Directory still provides an outstanding guide to worship "according to Scripture." The service is simple-encouraging substantial prayer, extensive Bible reading, confession of sin, the singing of Psalms, serious Bible preaching, the Lord's Prayer (its only fixed form), and a spirit of holy reverence throughout. As Charles W. Baird urged in 1855, "a more strict adherence to the prescribed order of the Directory of Worship" would result in vast improvement in Presbyterian worship. What was true then remains true now. The words to the Psalms are all taken from the Scottish Psalter, 1650. This is entirely appropriate because the Westminster Assembly, in addition to the Confession, Catechisms, and Directory, also produced a Psalter. Based upon the work of Frances Rous (which it altered beyond recognition), the Assembly's Psalter was never popularly received in England. North of the border it underwent rigorous revision over a three-year period resulting finally, after six complete revisions, in the 1650 Psalter. Thus, words traceable to it are the closest thing we have to the Psalms as the Assembly knew them.

Worship headings in italics were not a part of 7th Westminster Directory for Public Worship liturgy. This service is based on The Westminster Assembly's Directory for the Publique Worship of God (1644).
